

Introducing ClearBrand to Technology Businesses and Agencies

Introduction

We aim to deliver distinctive and intelligent design and communications – changing perceptions and raising your profile.

As a small Reading based agency, we offer a personalised dedicated service at affordable rates compared to larger London based agencies, but with comparable levels of expertise, ability and service. Being local, we are on hand to assist you through the design and marketing process as needed.

This introduction and rate card details information about ClearBrand, our approach, examples of our work and finally our general rate card for project pricing.

Our services for Tech:

Our experience ranges from UI/interface design for websites and apps to marketing campaigns for hardware products.

ClearBrand get tech. We are quick to understand your companies needs, whether product or service.

We develop smart, creative and technology-led design solutions to connect users with our brands. Our team includes talented technology design specialists; from visual design to front-end development. Let ClearBrand become your technology design agency of choice.

Taking Brands Beyond.

Why ClearBrand?

Who are ClearBrand?

ClearBrand is a design and branding agency based in Reading. We help our clients express their company and their products or services through creative ideas leading to iconic brand identities.

We invest time listening to our clients needs. With us you get a digital branding team that understand good principles of design. We develop and look after brands and projects that look great, build businesses and last the test of time.

We have a simple philosophy of design — to produce intelligent, concept-driven outcomes that are bespoke and relevant to their market. We help our clients connect with their audience — from startups to international brands.

We Listen

We listen, we discuss, we advise. Sounds obvious but we listen to your ideas, plans and objectives for your business. We then select the best solution to fit. We don't shoehorn projects and if we feel we're not a good fit we'll be honest and tell you from the outset.

Award Winning

We all know we want to see a design that inspires and amazes us as well as having an excellent user experience. At ClearBrand we're noted for our design capabilities and have been featured in industry magazines and are proud to have won an award for Designers of the Year by Computer Arts magazine.

Experience

We've worked on many projects and campaigns - we've seen the fads come and go and understand what works and what doesn't. We want to help you make your brand excel on the web and in print.

Competitive rates

As always, the scary thing about engaging with an agency tends to be the cost. With us you'll get open, honest rates that present excellent value for money and a great feeling of being looked after.

Support

We value long-lasting relationships and don't say goodbye the moment you see the completed project. Today's Internet technologies make communications simple, so you can quickly reach us via phone or e-mail. We encourage our customers to contact us with their concerns and are happy to help with anything.

Passionate, reliable and trusted

We love what we do and our enthusiasm remains until the very end. We always want to be proud of everything that is released – it's our reputation on the line and we want to hold onto it. Please do take a look through some of our more recent work over the next few pages.

The Creative Team

Josh White – Creative Director

Josh has worked as a designer at award winning branding and corporate communications agencies in London, Brighton and Reading before setting up ClearBrand. Connect on LinkedIn or email him to discuss how ClearBrand can help you connect with your audience.

Ed Jones – Lead Designer

Ed joined ClearBrand after working short term in a range of London-based Creative Agencies. He graduated from NUA – Norwich University of the Arts. Alongside his degree Ed has won a D&AD (Design and Art Direction Awards) pencil from 2016.

Mia Large – Designer/Developer

Mia is a passionate designer and developer who has joined ClearBrand after taking part in our internship programme. Mia studied her craft at Falmouth University before relocating to Reading.

Eddie Thomas,
Web Developer

Eddie is a multimedia designer and developer with over 35 years experience in print and web design and web/application development. He has provided services for both the public and SME sector.

Project support

For larger projects we can introduce our network range of freelancers and contractors including designers, developers, photographers, animators and more.

Our Approach

1. ASSIGN A DEVELOPMENT TEAM TO THE PROJECT

Your primary contact will be assigned to oversee the project and communicate between your company and our team. We will normally assign designer/s who will be assisted by a project manager.

2. FINDING YOUR 'CORE IDEA'

We help our clients find out what makes them different. We call this your 'core idea'. With ClearBrand, you get an agency that listens to you and asks the right questions to get the best out of your Brand. Where do you want to be? What do you want people to think when they see your brand?

3. CONCEPT STAGE

This is the fun bit! We produce an 'ideas wall' where we submit initial concepts for you to look at, whether this is initial logo ideas or colour combinations, this is where you get to see the brief come to life and where most of the hard work is done ensuring we create a strong visual presence for your business.

4. CONCEPTS REFINED

We want you to be totally happy with your company's final look. This stage is important as we take on board your initial reactions and start to look at refining the visual working towards the final concept. This process is usually broken down into two stages and will incorporate the tweaking of all the visual elements used to create the finished article.

5. CREATE

Creating brands and communications is not a mystic science, it is really common sense. We use our imagination and experience to create compelling stories, which resonate with customers, employees and other stakeholders.

6. MANAGE

In the corporate world your brand is your reputation and your reputation is driven by people's experience of you. We work with our clients to create the tools and resources they need to effectively manage their brands.

But it doesn't stop there. All brands need to be nurtured. Left to grow organically or to stagnate, you will quickly be back where you started. We work with our clients over many years, interrogating, investigating and developing their brands to ensure they grow as they do.

Technology Testimonials

“Professional and Creative with great communication and feedback. I approached ClearBrand after months of searching for the right business to create my brand and website, from my very first meeting they believed in the brand and were genuinely excited to work with us. Would highly recommend for branding and a Website design for any complexity or functionality.”

Peter Campbell – Founder, Add2Kitty

“Really pleased with how everything looks. Thanks for all your hard work, we are all very impressed!”

Megan Lazenby, Marketing Manager – ForburyTECH

“We approached ClearBrand within the last year to undertake a large design project incorporating a variety of print and digital assets.

Each project has been completed on time, on budget and to an exceptional standard despite often tight deadlines. We look forward to continuing our work with Josh and the team and will continue to highly recommend.”

Adam Norton, Marketing Manager – Bentham Instruments.

“ClearBrand have helped us build our online presence through revisiting our website strategy and given us a brand which stands out in the industry.”

Reagan Nyandoro – Marketing Manager, 3T logistics

“Fantastic service and quality every time. Quick turnaround times for material and excellent communication and design ideas. Would highly recommend if you're looking for a full service design agency.”

Eva Cannon – Marketing Manager – Barco /wePresent

“We are really happy with the outcome and partnership with ClearBrand on our brand and digital services and look forward to continuing our work towards making Daily Poppins a household brand.”

Nigel B, Director – Daily Poppins

Further Testimonials

“My letting agency recently used ClearBrand for a new logo, stationery, fascia, etc. and they were excellent from start to finish. They offered a number of designs to choose from and made amendments promptly. Very happy with the final product.”

Adam Lewin, Director – Reading Lettings

“As a group of established recruiters looking to rebrand a new Professional Services Recruitment company, we were referred to ClearBrand to partner with us in creating a brand and a website. We had decided on the company name - Ernest Hunter Green, but each had our own thoughts and feelings on how the brand should look. ClearBrand were able to bridge the gap and create a brand we felt represented our business, an image we would be happy to use over the years as the business grew. The website allows us to post roles and for candidates and clients to easily see our areas of specialism. We were given expert advice from Josh and his team ensuring we were able to manage the website independently once he set us free”

Sue Palmer, Director – Ernest Hunter Green

“I approached ClearBrand needing company branding and website design and build. I have nothing but praise for the excellent service and creativity from Josh and the team. They translated my ideas, outline website structure and copy into something which truly articulates how I want to be seen in business. I'm absolutely delighted with the end results and have had incredibly positive feedback from anyone viewing my website. They delivered to my timescales, added huge creative value and were lovely to work with. I continue to work with them for all my creative needs.”

Sue Austin, Director – Austin Consulting

“An excellent, personal and highly professional service. I approached ClearBrand having met with several creative agencies to re-brand our organisation and develop brand guidelines. I chose ClearBrand as their approach to the project was more hands on, creative and very competitive. Their service throughout was very consultative, professional and Josh and the team always made themselves available when needed. Since the initial project they have always been very responsive to further design tasks and very forthcoming with advice when requested. Would highly recommend.”

Matthew James, Marketing – GreenBrook Healthcare
